Attorney Smith Installs S. G. A. Officers

MISS RJC AND ATTENDANTS

Miss RJC And Attendants Chosen In Election

As a result of the recent College election, Miss Virginia Jones, an attractive and personable nineteen year old sophomore, was chosen for the coveted title of "Miss Roosevelt Junior College." The charming Misses Agnes Stevens and Patricia Mainor were chosen as her attendants.

Miss Jones, a native of Waycross, Georgia, and now a resident of West Palm Beach, is a 1959 Roosevelt High School graduate. She is on the Dean's list, and is a member of the cheerleaders, and the creative dance group. Her hobbies are swimming, dancing, drawing and painting.

Upon completion of her study at Roosevelt Junior College, Miss Jones anticipates continuing her education at Florida A. and M. University, where she plans to major in Biology and Physical education.

Miss Stevens, who is also a member of the College Choir, has a voice that is equally as charming as she. Miss Stevens plans to further her education at Bethune-Cookman College and to major in library science and elementary education. Miss Stevens' hobbies are singing, dancing, sewing and reading.

The other attendant is Miss Patricia Mainor, a personable seventeen year old freshman, who looks forward to attending Florida

From The President's Desk

Nearly two thousand years ago, the angels heralded the coming of a Savior who would satisfy the yearnings in the hearts of men. With this coming, the whole course of human events changed and the answer to all human problems was available for the asking for it was the Prince of Peace who came. As emissaries at this season we direct our thoughts and our deeds toward continuously spreading the message of love, faith, and goodwill that peace may abide.

May you as members of a college family ever be mindful of the need for human understanding that this peace may become evident in our times.

May each of us know a Joyful Christmas and a successful 1961.

A. and M. University and majoring in elementary education. She is a member of the Y.W.C.A. and her hobbies are sewing and dancing.

For these representatives of the Roosevelt Junior College we sincerely wish success in their individual endeavors.

Charges Each Officer To Perform His Duties Well

Attorney I. C. Smith, a native Floridian, received his B.A. Degree from Florida A. and M. University, Tallahassee, Florida, and the LL.B. Degree from the Brooklyn School of Law, Brooklyn, N.Y. He was the installing officer for 1960-61 officials of the R.J.C. Student Government Association. He is now practicing law here in West Palm Beach.

Attorney Smith has rendered many services to local, state, and national organizations. One of the most recent services performed on the local level was the impressive installation of the Student Government Association officers and the class officers of Roosevelt Junior College, on November 15. Miss RJC also received her coveted crown.

Each officer was given a solemn oath and told his individual responsibilities with reference to his position. Attorney Smith was quite dynamic in his approach as he told the officers that the Roosevelt Junior College is depending on them to honor their position of leadership since the student body has the utmost confidence in their ability to lead. He pointed out also the honor which goes along with worthwhile leadership. With this the 1960-61 S.G.A. officers were installed and wished a successful term.

Sincere gratitude was expressed to Attorney Smith for bringing to Roosevelt Junior College this meaningful service.

The S.G.A. officers installed were: Johnny Singleton, president; Charles Rolle, vice president; Billie Jean Jackson, secretary; Barbara Butler, financial secretary; Lorenzo Folsom, treasurer; and Monzell Paulk, business manager.

Grace Littles Heads The Women's Senate

The Women's Senate is a club whose function it is to work as a close ally to the Student Government Association. Those problems which are pertinent to the young ladies on the campus will be discussed and pointed up in this organization.

This newly formed group has as its officers Grace Littles, president; Gerardine Warthen, vice president; Barbara J. Williams, secretary; Josephine Taylor, assistant secretary; Ora Jean Hines, treasurer; and Virginia Jones, reporter.

Other members of this group are Elizabeth Baptist, Lucille Young, Deloris Byrd and Eleanor Johnson.

Miss R. S. Perry is the advisor.

Tomorrow Without Fear

In the past, America has lived the very image of President Roosevelt's phrase, "We have nothing to fear but fear itself."

But the very foundation of these words was shaken on October 7, 1957, when the Soviet Union, a nation most Westerners thought of as lagging scientifically, sent aloft the first earth satellite.

Instead of being an occasion for rejoicing over a great scientific feat, it was an occasion for fear and uncertainty. Before October 6th, almost no one questioned America's great scientific superiority. Those who love America saw this event not as an end but as a beginning to the replacement of our complacency with a new perspective.

This very incident presents to us, the college student, the greatest challenge of this decade. If we are to survive or if humanity is to survive, we must meet this challenge educationally.

America needs a new insight. If we are to achieve this new insight or vision, we must be examined as an instrument of America's future.

Today we are presented with an unprecedented situation which offers to us a broader challenge. Over 98 million non-communist people in Africa and South Asia are awakening from poverty and insecurity to seek their independence. They are demanding of their governments rapid progress toward expanded opportunity, dignity and justice.

These countries need teachers, lawyers, engineers, scientists, doctors, nurses and economic experts. We are challenged to prepare ourselves to occupy these positions. And if America's youth do not fulfill this challenge, then we shall fear communist domination of these under-developed nations.

As one can see, there are challenges to the American students from all fields of endeavor. The world challenges us to prepare ourselves to meet the demands of the future.

Meet these challenges today, and tomorrow we shall have nothing to fear.

A Message From The S.G.A. President

To the student body of Roosevelt Junior College:

"Now that the Student Government election is over, the Council is ready to commence a year of diligent work. I firmly believe that your decision in each instance was a very wise one. I know that I voice the sentiment of each officer when I say that we will endeavor assiduously to make this one of the best years of the Council at Roosevelt Junior College

"With such an efficient governing body as you have elected, many things can be done to aid you and many things can be done by you to assist us. Whenever you have any problems that cannot be solved alone or any ideas that might be of value to the student body, please let the Council know about them immediately. Likewise, the Council will let you know its problems so that you may help to solve them. The Council certainly trusts that the student body will cooperate in every way to make this one of the most memorable and delightful years of the Roosevelt Junior College.

"Let us turn to another very important subject which is worthy of decision. For the past nine weeks you have worked diligently to earn your compensation for your work. Although your pay will not be given in money, you will be rewarded handsomely. During these nine weeks, many of you have not earned the pay that meets your satisfaction. However, there is enough time for your complacency to be corrected. There are still nine more weeks left in order that you may have an opportunity to redeem yourselves. Each one of you will be paid by the following method: A-4 points; B-3 points; C-2 points; D-1 point; F-no credit.

"By this method of paying your salary, each student is rewarded

New Faculty Members

These charming young educators have been added to the Roosevelt Junior College faculty for 1960-61: Miss Rachel Perry (l), a graduate of Fort Valley State College and Tuskegee Institute, formerly taught at Oconee High School in Dublin, Georgia. She now serves as teacher of English and Speech. Mrs. Idella Wade, a graduate of Florida A. and M. University, serves as librarian. Mrs. Geneva Boynton, a graduate of Clark College (Atlanta), served as office manager and bookkeeper at Williams Collection Agency, here, for eight years. She is college secretary.

Making Their Choices

CAMPUS CUES

By Eleanor F. Johnson

APPEARANCE

Our appearance is our first approach to people; it speaks for us, before we have a chance to speak for ourselves. It is a part of our culture to make ourselves as attractive as possible. Proper grooming is important for the effect it has on other people, as well as for the effect it has on us. Our appearance includes our clothes, our posture, our walking or sitting, our make-up, and our cleanliness.

What To Wear

Ques.: At what time can you wear a formal and be sure you are correct?

Ans.: Formals are not worn to parties outside your own house before 6:00 p.m. unless you are assisting as hostess.

Ques.: Can a man wear an open shirt and no tie if going on a date?

Ans.: If he is going to a beach party or a picnic or any very informal affair he may wear casual attire.

Ques.: How do fellows feel about what a girl wears on a date?

Ans.: A fellow doesn't like to come dressed very informally and have the girl all dressed up. Where you are going has much to do with what you wear. The man should give the girl a hint as to the type of dress he will expect her to wear.

Ques.: How can you be sure you are wearing the right type of dress?

Ans.: Find out what you will be doing and choose whatever suits the occasion. If you are in doubt, ask your escort or girls who are going to the party. A kind host always remembers to tell the specific type of dress when issuing the invitation, because he knows the activities planned, and in this way all guests will wear the same type of dress.

Ques.: Should you tell your date if something is wrong with his or her appearance?

Ans.: By all means. Mention the fact politely and privately. Your aim is to try to help your date, not to embarrass him.

Ques.: Should a woman wear gloves in church?

Ans.: A woman's presence in church for any reason calls for gloves and a hat.

Ques.: When may a woman keep her gloves on indoors?

Ans.: It is not necessary to take them off at any time except when food or drink is offered.

Ques.: When do you remove long formal gloves before a formal dinner?

Ans.: As soon as you have been seated at the dinner table. Fold them across your lap so you won't drop them.

Ques.: When do women have to wear hats?

Ans.: Women always wear hats and gloves in church and at formal dinners.

The Library Corner

The library staff and faculty were fortunate to have had Miss Sara Crittendon, head librarian at St. Petersburg Junior College in St. Petersburg, Florida, to serve as a consultant in the area of library service. Miss Crittendon presented pertinent information that stimulated our thinking as well as it brought to our attention requirements that should be achieved before the proposed standards of our accrediting agencies can be met.

The library collection continues to grow as new books are being purchased and gifts are coming into the library in large numbers. This school year more than 150 books have been given to the R.J.C. Library. Most of these volumes have been very good novels, an indispensable part of any library collection.

Students should be reminded that they are not to carry materials from the library without checking them out properly from the circulation desk. Join in and help to build a collection of books and other materials.

On Sunday, December 4, at 4:00 p.m., the library staff presented a book review. Advise and Consent by Allen Drury was reviewed by Mr. Samuel Hay, who is with the Speech Department at Roosevelt High School. This book has been at the top of the Best Seller list for weeks.

or reception.

Some cues for improving your general appearance:

1. Develop good posture. A poor posture can ruin the fit of the best looking suit or dress. Your posture can reflect how you are thinking and feeling. A good posture shows that all is well with you.

2. Improve your walk. A woman should practice placing one foot slightly in front of the other so she will have good balance. The way you walk into a room makes your very first impression. Learn to move with ease, grace and poise.

3. Check your expression. By all means wear some type of expression. When someone looks at you, be sure he can tell where the wall ends and your face begins.

4. Select clothes which you can best express yourself in when you wear them.

5. Refuse to act anything but yourself.

6. Have clothes clean, neat, and well pressed. Have well-kept hair, face, skin, and hands.

6. Avoid being conspicuous by using clashing shades of nail polish and lipstick.

6. Avoid chipped nail polish, uneven or grimy fingernails. Keep them clean and well filed.

Freshmen Class Elects Barbara Williams President

The freshman class looks forward to a successful and prosperous school term under the leadership of its elected officers.

Freshman officers are: Barbara J. Williams, president; Aljerome Easley, vice president; Seleatha Jones, secretary; Olivie Minor, assistant secretary; Monzell Paulk, treasurer; Ernest Hill, parliamentarian; Mary Brown, chaplain; Robert Sanders, reporter; and Alvin Hampton and Johnny Johnson, business managers.

The members of the executive board are Grace Littles and Edwin McRae.

Miss R. L. Bullock and Mr. S. H. Cooke are the advisors.

Sophomores Choose Lillie Clemons As President

Lillie Clemons has been chosen to pilot the Sophomore Class through its final year at Roosevelt Junior College and she has pledged herself to putting forth her best effort to do a good job.

Creative Dance Group Selects Barbara Butler As Prexy

The Creative dance group at its organizational meeting elected the following officers for the year 1960-61: Barbara Butler, president; Charlie Powell, vice president; Annie Ruth Wilburn, secretary; Lorian Harold, treasurer; Virginia Jones and Ethel Williams, business managers; Patricia Mainor and Eleanor Barber, property managers.

One of the projects of the dance group is a spring recital for which members are now practicing. Some of the dances will be done using songs written by Stephen Foster. The exact date of the recital will be given later.

Sponsor of the group is Mrs. N. Stubbs, Physical Education instructor at R.J.C.

Branch YWCA Organized At RJC

A college branch of the Y.W.C.A. was organized at Roosevelt Junior College on November 4, under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Eleanor Johnson with Miss R. L. Bullock assisting.

Officers elected for 1960-61 are: Hattie Purvis, president; Lucille Young, vice president; Mamie Lowe, secretary; Virginia Jones, assistant secretary; Geraldine Warthen, treasurer; Ora Jean Hines, reporter, and Barbara Jean Williams, chaplain.

One of the major aims and objectives of the Y.W.C.A. is to train our young women to live clean, decent, and wholesome lives in their respective communities, and to display constructive qualities of leadership and character.

The new branch Y is strongly felt and it is believed that such an organization among our student group can be of vital importance, both to the school and to the community.

Memo From The Dean

It is always a pleasure to welcome new and returning students to Roosevelt Junior College. We are happy to know that you have decided to continue your education at our institution. We are anxious to help you do the thing you want to do; to prepare for the profession or vocation of your choice; to become well educated, well adjusted, and well organized individuals. We are anxious, if possible, to bridge the gap between educational fundamentals and ethical standards. In other words, we want you to develop character as well as learn the subject matter of the courses taken. We are interested in having you learn how to function in a democratic organization through participation in student affairs, and through your participation learn to make your own decisions and assume responsibility for such decisions.

We would like to have you cooperate in every way, participating wholeheartedly and beneficially in both class and student activities. If you enter college life with the right attitude, you will thoroughly enjoy and benefit by your experiences.

We are proud of our college. We are proud of our graduates and what they are doing. We urge you to help raise our scholastic standings, and better our general reputation by proper conduct at all times. To do this will not only help you as individuals, but will help us to gain much from your attendance.

CORONATION IS COLORFUL

On Tuesday evening, November 15, members of the Roosevelt Junior College family gathered at Roosevelt Auditorium to witness the Coronation Ceremony at which lovely Miss Virginia Jones was crowned "Miss RJC." The pictures tell the story: At top, the crowd watches the procession. Next, the royal party awaits the queen as the crown bearer (Little Walter Allen Seymore, a young community helper) approaches. Below, the Queen and her consort (Johnny Singleton) approach the throne, and at bottom, Her Majesty gets the crown.

Falcons Win Touch Football Intramural Title

The Intramural Touch Football Tournament was held among the men's physical education classes during regular class periods. Four teams were entered in the competition: the Hawks, Falcons, Colts and the Raiders.

This tournament was held to teach the student the art of sportsmanship, fair play, and the desire to win cleanly.

The tournament lasted for three weeks and resulted in the Falcons winning the championship, Raiders being runners-up, and Colts coming in for consolation.

ROOSEVELT J. C. CLOSES SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Student Body Elects President

Early in the term, the freshman class met in the cafetorium to elect the president of the student body. Everyone was excited and full of anxiety with no one actually knowing his fellow students too well. The group nominated several persons. Through the process of secret ballot, the student body unanimously elected Alfred Newbold as the first president of the student body of Roosevelt Junior College.

Mr. Newbold was a member of the class of 1953 of Roosevelt High School, in West Palm Beach, Fla. He is now working as one of the youngest carpenters in this city and is also studying in the field of Mathematics.

After graduating from the Roosevelt Junior College, Mr. Newbold plans to attend Florida A&M University in Tallahassee.

Mrs. Mitchell Chosen Miss RJC

Mrs. Maxine Mitchell "topped" eight candidates to become Homecoming Queen of Roosevelt Junior College in the fall election.

Mrs. Mitchell is a graduate of Union Academy, Bartow, Florida. She represented her school by riding in the Roosevelt High School's annual homecoming parade. She was dressed in red and white, temporary school colors. Her attendants were Loretta Martin and Annie Alford, whose costumes were also red and white.

Mrs. Mitchell plans to be an Elementary Education teacher. She has the honor of being the first Homecoming Queen of Roosevelt Junior College.

To Be Occupied Next Spring

Under the competent leadership of its president, Mr. Britton G. Sayles, Roosevelt Junior College closes a successful year.

The college family, having worked hard to meet the challenge of its new responsibility, looks forward to the school opening next Spring, when it occupies the new building which is now under construction. (See photo to the left)

Opening Social

An Orientation Social was given for the students of Roosevelt Junior College during the week of September, 1958. This social was held in the High School gymnasium. The entertainment featured an assortment of musical selections, including popular and classical tunes, played on Hi-Fidelity records, featuring platters of "Bands From All The Lands." During the interim of the Get-Acquainted Social, refreshments were served. The menu included cookies and punch.

A pink and blue scheme was carried out in the decorations and the refreshment table was arranged in white and green, with green frappe.

The young men and coeds were dressed in Semi-Formal attire with white identification tags attached. Highlighting the occasion were waltzes and stroll numbers. The affair is to be long remembered by the lassies and lads of Roosevelt Junior College.

Students Write Constitution and By-Laws

We, the students of Roosevelt Junior College, in order to reveal sound judgement, skill and an understanding of current affairs, and to play our part in the present day complicated political, economic and social activities around us, do ordain and establish this constitution for the student body.

The constitution includes eight articles governing students, their offices and the execution of duties of officers, culminating with the oath of office. Before a student accepts or executes an office he shall take the following affirmation:

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of (office) of the Roosevelt Junior College, and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the constitution of the Roosevelt Junior College.

Roosevelt, The Community College

What is the Community College?

Roosevelt Junior College is a two-year College dedicated to the service of the people of Palm Beach County. It was established under the authority of the State of Florida and the Board of Public Instruction of Palm Beach County, primarily to fulfill the educational needs of those students living within this area.

What is the College's Responsibility To the Community?

Your Community College believes that higher education should be available for all students who can profit from its offering. From experience, we know that our students will be of all ages and have a variety of personal educational needs. We also know that the community as a whole has needs which are fundamental to its successful existence. Accordingly, it then becomes our obligation to offer as many opportunities for specialized training as practicable. At the same time we must help all of our students, regardless of personal career plans, to become contributing and responsible members of the community.

What is the College's Responsibility To the Students?

For the younger student looking ahead to completing a degree from a four-year college or professional school, the college offers the first two years of undergraduate work in courses which parallel those of the four-year institutions.

For those students who are seeking job competence in the one or two years they plan to spend at Roosevelt Junior College, there is a choice of several terminal programs.

Older students, without reference to their previous training, may find themselves at a career point where additional training will improve their earning power or prepare them for new employment.

Thus Roosevelt Junior College opened its doors in September, 1958.

Saying

"Writing is about the best way I know to develop insight into life and into character. When you begin to study the people around you, you begin to see beneath the surface. Every hour a man spends writing develops his skill and sympathetic perception."

President of Student Council

We are making history in education in this city, and the eyes of the world are upon us. Comprehension of the nature and responsibilities of modern life and matured capacities for understanding current affairs are expected of us.

There are some potential talents of one kind or another in all of us, and fortunately Roosevelt Junior College is at hand, otherwise for some, our useful human values would remain submerged within us.

Our aim is to take a step toward leadership and academic achievements. To accomplish our goal we must apply ourselves.

President's Message

Greetings:

In the name of higher education, I greet the patrons and friends of Roosevelt Junior College and express my appreciation for the opportunity to serve as an instrument in a program of extended education to all. I highly commend the foresight of those who visioned such educational opportunities. I congratulate the young men and women who have seized the chance to learn, for fully do we realize that education maketh a well informed citizenry. Society today is calling for a thinking people and people must learn to think for themselves and to think wisely and well.

May this, your first issue of The Inquirer, lead to a fruitful publication.

I solicit the help, cooperation, and forces of each of you as we work diligently for the greatest good for the greatest number.

Sincerely,

BRITTON G. SAYLES

Christmas Party

With the spirit and the thought of giving in their hearts, the student body of Roosevelt Junior College enjoyed a most delightful evening at its first Christmas party.

The background was one fit for the occasion. There were Xmas trees representing both the High School and Junior College.

Although Santa wasn't there, each student was surprised with a gift. How? By means of a grab bag, of course. Boy! Were we surprised?

A BETTER ONE

Once an upoised, carefree idler;
My thoughts were often on the run,

Time, unlimited was fun.
Oh, but I could be a better one!
Now I have put off slothful things,

Replaced them with work supreme;

While working, playing, thinking, praying,

I have no time for idle dreams.

Editorial

Now, as never before, men and women of superior ability and advanced training are in great demand. A revelation of shortages in both professional and scientific fields have focused attention on the acute need for well trained men and women. "Business strongly prefers the college graduate."

Although most of the noticeable increases in educated talent have come in the fields of science and technology, there has also been a creditable increase in the demand for men of high training in managerial or administrative positions. Dr. John W. Gardner, president of the Carnegie Corporation of New York, states that public administration at all levels has shown the same leaning toward highly trained men.

"Today the man with a degree is taking over every central and significant activity in our society." Since there has been such an increased demand for educated talent, the role of our colleges and universities has taken on new emphasis and new importance.

Even though specialization for certain purposes of government, science, and business is advisable and necessary, our complex rapidly changing and adapting society calls also for men and women with a general education which will enable them to see and cope with larger relationships: "which will enable them to survive the ups and downs of specific demand, and yet adapt themselves to changing situations."

Dean-Registrar

Congratulations to members of the staff who are responsible for this publication. As we look at the School Year 1958-59 in retrospect, it becomes evident that many historic events have taken place. The establishment of Roosevelt Junior College is of special significance for all of us. The Junior College, in our modern society, represents more than a promise for the future. It is a vital present-day reality, a vigorous institution. Throughout the country an increasing number of students attend community colleges in or near their hometowns.

Roosevelt Junior College is a Community College designed to meet the needs of youth and adults in Palm Beach County and surrounding areas. Take advantage of the opportunity; yours is a glorious future; make every minute of every hour count.

Yours for Success,
PAUL W. BUTLER,
Dean-Registrar

SNEA Club

Orientation Ball

One of the gayest affairs held at Roosevelt Junior College was the Valentine - Orientation Ball. This party was given to welcome the new students who enrolled the second semester.

Students played various games and engaged in dancing and refreshments. Mrs. M. T. Holliday, Physical Education Instructor at the College, made pictures of the class and faculty.

The new members received words of welcome from the college president, Mr. B. G. Sayles; dean-registrar, Mr. P. W. Butler; and our class president, Mr. Alfred Newbold.

Spring Promenade

On the night of May 24, 1959, Roosevelt Junior College presented its first formal dance. This fabulous affair began at 9:00 P. M. and lasted until 1:15 A. M. During those moments of enchantment, many persons who were not known for dancing, were swaying to music played by Tiny Ferguson and the Royal Shieks. Many new faces were seen as guests of the students came in. Some of the guests were from out of town.

The decoration committee had worked hard and faithfully and their efforts were rewarded, for the gym was indeed a beautiful sight. It had the suggestion of a tropical paradise in the moonlight.

As everyone danced away the time he was taken by the gay tropical mood. And as everyone left, compliments could be heard everywhere. It was evident that everyone had enjoyed himself at the Promenade.

RJC Students Participate In Delta Jabberwock

Roosevelt Junior College students found themselves in the maze of humor, cowboys, music and drama of T. V. Land as presented on the Delta Sigma Theta's annual Jabberwock on March 13, 1959.

A short skit based on "Our Miss Brooks" was presented by the college students and received a rousing round of applause. Although the skit was non-competitive, many critics expressed the opinion that it was superbly characterized.

The cast consisted of Claudia Williams as Miss Brooks, Betty Whitten as Mrs. Davis, Dan McDuffy as Walter and Vann Daughtry as Boynton.

Original Poems

A College Education

When I was a boy not so high,
I dreamed that upon an Education I could rely,

To reach for the sky was my endeavor,
I would not fail, no not ever.

I'd comprehend knowledge in every way,
An become master of all I survey.

Milton Strickland

Love is the earth's sweet sand
That was molded by God's own hand;

Love is the breath that he blew,
And from it man was made new.

II

Love is that radiant light,
Which gives forth to man
Its wonderful glories of night,
Love is that feeling that
God alone can give,

A truly magnificent purpose for man to live.

Say It With Songs

A college education is "So Fine" that after one has earned a degree in his chosen field he has "No Regrets", in fact he has "Personality". Although Mathematics 102 is not what we expected, we "Need It So Bad."

I am confident that "No Matter What You Are" the instructors will "Be Ever Wonderful". Look around and you can tell "It's Just A Matter of Time" before the Junior College building is "Available."

I know the term paper in Biology gave you an "Imitation of Life," but "It's All in the Game." Not getting personal, but did "Smoke Get in Your Eyes" after the Semester grades were mailed?

You can tell by the Spring promenade that the man was wrong about "Everybody's Doing The Cha Cha Cha" but I go along with the spirit that everybody wants to "Cha, Cha, Cha".

The staff and sponsors of The Inquirer extend appreciation to Mr. Joseph Orr for taking pictures of our various activities.

Honor Students

The purpose of the Roosevelt Junior College Dean's List is to commend officially those full-time students whose grades are "B" average, 3.0 or over.

Commendation is given also to the students who are part-time but who earn a quality point average of 3.0 or over.

Reading for left to right: Miss Gladys Rich is an honor student (part-time); Mrs. Aleveta Townsend and Mrs. Bettye Dawson are the two students who made the Dean's List.

On The Faculty Front

During the present school term, faculty members have attended many significant conferences and educational forums in and out of the state.

Mr. B. G. Sayles, president, attended the Principals' Conference at Bethune-Cookman College during the month of October. He attended the Florida Council of Institutions of Higher Learning held in St. Petersburg during the fall and in Daytona Beach during the spring. He also attended the FSTA in Tampa in April.

Mr. P. W. Butler, Dean-Registrar, attended the Teacher Education Advisory Council when it met at Bethune-Cookman in Daytona Beach, and when it met at Florida A&M University in Tallahassee. He attended, also, the meeting of the National Association of Collegiate Deans and Registrars March 18-20, 1959, at Southern University, Baton Rouge, La.

Mr. C. McLendon served as consultant at the recent FSTA.

Mrs. Mary Holliday and Mrs. C. B. Bridwell attended the Florida Guidance Conference at Florida A&M University in February.

Members of the faculty are frequently called upon to give community services. This they willingly do.

The Best In The World

"The best in the world"—
That's a title that's meant
To fit you, dear Mother,
One hundred per cent.

And if wishes for joy
Just come true, you can bet
That the "best in the world"
Is the kind that you'll get.

There's no one like you
No Mother quite so true,
No one who seems to know and care

In quite the way you do.
Many happy memories prompt this message sent to say
That there's much love within this heartfelt prayer:

"May God bless you abundantly,
And keep you in his care."
